

ROBERT SHOUP

Church Holds Banquet for Coach, Team

Christ the King Lutheran Church will honor Coach Robert Shoup of the California Lutheran College and Torrance members of the college football squad at a banquet Sunday at 5:15 p.m. at the church. Torrance players to be guests are Paul Harmon, Kip Mooney, Bob Trevathan, Bob Davis, Tim Roettger and Mike Cox.

The Rev. Sam Babbington from Moscow, Idaho, will be guest speaker.

Entertaining at the banquet will be the 12 members of the college singing group, The Serenaders, composed of six coeds and six men students.

Coach Shoup, former North High School coach, will show slides of the CLC campus, which is located at Thousand Oaks in Ventura County, following dinner.

Hahn Deputy To Discuss Improvements

Arlyn Weber, field deputy for Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, and representatives of the County Engineer's office will meet with persons in the Carson area who want to improve their residential areas.

The meeting will be held Thursday, Jan. 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the Oral Arts Room at Carson High School, 22328 S. Main St.

The session will be devoted to the kinds of improvements which can be made and the costs involved, as well as procedure for initiating such work.

SHS Thespians Elect Officers

South High School's National Thespians Society, Troop 2111, has elected Margaret Becker president. Miss Becker will take office at the beginning of the new semester.

Other newly-elected officers include: Katherine Walker, vice president; Sharon Schneider, secretary; Sandra Maddox, treasurer; Murleen Reeves, inter-club representative; and Michele Sullivan, clerk.

Detailed studies show that a marked warm spell generally takes place across most of the United States and southern Canada around the third week of January. The thaw originates in the Gulf of Alaska's low pressure area, moving southeastward across the United States.
